

work where they play

Coming to Toronto in 2010: convenience and culture like never before. Maple Leaf Square offers 207,000 sq.ft. of modern office space alongside a popular condo complex, boutique hotel, a fine-dining restaurant, a sports bar, a two-storey sports bar/restaurant, three levels of retail, and a little place you may have heard of called Air Canada Centre.

Moments from the Gardiner Expressway and steps to Union Station, Maple Leaf Square will save time and hassle for commuters. With waterfront parks, arts and crafts, year-round festivals, and Toronto Island ferries a stone's throw away, tenants will benefit from the city's top attractions.

The vitality of so much culture and business activity close at hand is sure to make Maple Leaf Square a major hub, with a lifestyle that goes way beyond the nine-to-five. Enjoy a future fueled by the same spirit that fuels the Maple Leafs and Raptors, the team spirit of a lively metropolis.
